MOTION FOR TIME SERVED

Comes now, defendant, Bernard J. O'Hallaren, III, pro-se, and appears and moves this honorable court to consider what the defendant thinks is a more than fair and equitable offer that serves the ends of justice.

The defendant believes that it would serve the interest's of justice to waive all future litigation and appeal rights regarding this violation of supervised release upon an order from the court granting time served for said violation.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

Thus if it appears to the satisfaction of the court that the ends of justice and the best interests of the public and the defendant would be served thereby that this court amend the sentence of January 14, 2008 to one of time served and in exchange the defendant will waive his appellate rights regarding that sentence. The defendant would remind the court that this is more than fair in light of there being no factual basis for the sentence since it lacks any judicial inquiry, colloquy or other factual basis.
